ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

By Appointment.

The Museum (1) was begun in 1851 and finished 1856. It is devoted to the exhibition and classification of plants with various commercial uses, either as food, medicine, clothing, or in manufactures. Plants are sent here from all over the world, classified and valued, and stored together with a collection of statues and portraits of famous botanists. The pond in front of this building is the home of many water-fowl.
